FIVE DAY EVENT INSPIRING INDUSTRY & RESEARCH COLLABORATION

THREE DAY CONFERENCE | TWO DAY WORKSHOP

HOST: THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

WHEN: 18-22 JUNE 2018

VENUE: THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE, PARKVILLE CAMPUS

This annual research training event aims to strengthen mathematical optimisation research engagement and its applications across industry. AMSI Optimise will comprise a three day industry-focused conference, followed by a two day research workshop. The event features international guest speakers, expert and end-user talks, tutorials, collaboration showcases and industry challenge sessions. AMSI Optimise is aimed at industry practitioners interested in exploring the benefits of and engagement with optimisation research, and postgraduate students and academics wanting to better understand industry drivers and needs in this area.

The Australian Mathematical Sciences Institute (AMSI) is a not-for-profit organisation, coordinating programs to address and protect the health of Australia's mathematical sciences pipeline.

AMSI Optimise 2018 will develop:

MATHEMATICAL SKILLS
